

EMPLOYMENT CODE OF CONDUCT

AMBE' WELLNESS EMPLOYMENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Issued by Ambe' LLC | Kollam, Kerala, India

Effective as of: [Insert Date]

This Code of Conduct outlines the professional, ethical, and interpersonal standards expected from all Ayurvedic practitioners, consultants, support staff, and collaborators engaged with Ambe' LLC. All team members are required to read, understand, and comply with this policy as a condition of their engagement.

1. Respectful Behavior and Anti-Discrimination

- Treat every colleague, patient, and member of the public with dignity and respect.
- Refrain from any form of sexism, racism, casteism, ageism, religious bias, or discrimination based on gender identity, sexual orientation, ability, socioeconomic background, or health status.
- Avoid any verbal, physical, written, or behavioral conduct that could be considered harassing, threatening, or offensive.

2. Sexual Harassment and Boundary Protocols

- Sexual harassment of any kind-verbal, physical, or non-verbal-is strictly prohibited.
- Maintain professional boundaries in all patient interactions.
- Do not initiate or encourage romantic, flirtatious, or emotionally entangled behavior with patients or colleagues.
- Exploitation of patient vulnerability will lead to immediate dismissal and legal consequences.

3. Professional Conduct

- Be punctual, prepared, and fully present for appointments.
- Maintain confidentiality and avoid inappropriate disclosure.
- Use supportive, educational, and non-diagnostic language in line with Ambe's philosophy.
- Avoid making unapproved medical claims or diagnoses.
- Maintain appropriate hygiene and professional visual presentation in virtual sessions.

4. Digital Decorum and Communication Etiquette

- Use respectful language in all digital and verbal communications.
- Refrain from political, religious, or polarizing commentary unless relevant and respectful.
- Respond to patient and team communications within 48 hours.

5. Cultural Sensitivity and Integrity

- Respect diverse cultural and spiritual traditions.
- Avoid imposing personal beliefs on patients.
- Use culturally sensitive language and avoid assumptions.
- Commit to continuous self-reflection and ethical integrity.

6. Feedback and Reviews

- Participate in private feedback assessments.
- Understand that public review systems will be implemented.
- Poor feedback or breaches may lead to review, probation, or termination.

7. Reporting Violations

- Report any breaches of this Code to the Ambe' oversight team.
- Retaliation against good faith reporting is strictly prohibited.

8. Acknowledgment
